ABOUT YOUR TOURS

BAROQUE ROME CITY TOUR WITH LUNCH IN PIAZZA NAVONA (MARCH 15)

This morning, as you disembark from your ship, your Roman adventure begins! A comfortable coach will whisk you away to the Eternal City, where history, art, and culture await at every turn.

Your walking tour begins at the elegant Piazza del Popolo. From there, we'll head to the Pantheon, one of Rome's most remarkable monuments, built for Emperor Augustus and still perfectly preserved after 20 centuries. Just a short stroll away, you'll hear the gentle roar of the Trevi Fountain, Rome's most iconic and beloved fountain. Toss a coin and make a wish – legend says it guarantees your return to this magical city!

Next, we ascend to the romantic Spanish Steps, the crown jewel of Baroque architecture and a favorite spot for poets, lovers, and dreamers. Take in the view from the top or simply soak in the atmosphere of this timeless landmark.

Next, soak in the vibrant energy of Piazza Navona, where we'll enjoy a traditional Roman lunch at the historic Tre Scalini – a Roman institution dating back to 1815 and a must-visit destination for travelers around the world.

After lunch, you'll check into your hotel and enjoy a free evening to explore Rome at your own pace. Whether you choose to wander the enchanting streets, sip espresso in a charming café, or discover a hidden gem, the Eternal City is yours to uncover.

PRIVATE EVENING AT THE VATICAN INCLUDING THE VATICAN MUSEUMS & SISTINE CHAPEL (MARCH 16)

Tonight, we will experience a private visit to the Vatican, including the Vatican Museums and Sistine Chapel.

As the crowds fade and the sun sets over Rome, you'll be welcomed by your expert guide who will lead us through an empty museum, offering a close, unhurried look at some of the world's most revered treasures.

Wander through quiet galleries filled with masterpieces by Michelangelo, Raphael, and more – each story brought vividly to life by your guide.

In the hushed stillness of the Sistine Chapel, take your time to absorb the breathtaking beauty of Michelangelo's frescoes at your own pace, including the iconic Creation of Adam. The chapel's silence enhances the experience, deepening the impact of this masterpiece.

This private evening tour is an extraordinary chance to encounter the Vatican's artistic and historical legacy in an exclusive, tranquil setting, where each piece tells its story.

Please note that, as this is an evening tour, St. Peter's Basilica will be closed, and we will not have access to enter.

FULL-DAY TOUR TO SANTA BENEDETTA WINERY AND COOKING LESSON WITH LUNCH (MARCH 17)

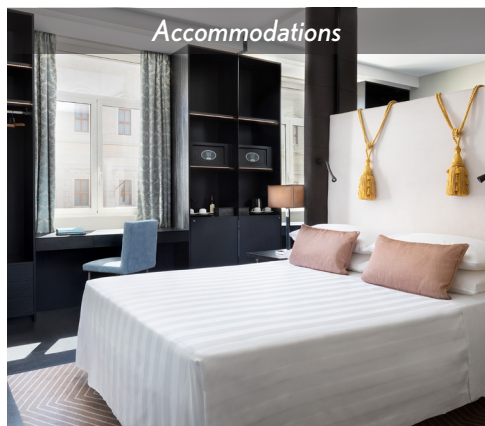

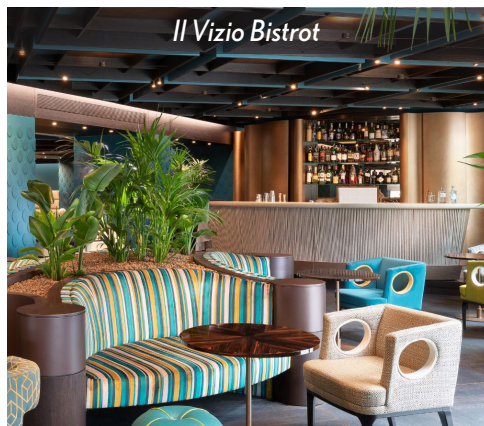

After a delicious buffet breakfast at the hotel, you'll board a coach for Santa Benedetta Winery for a day filled with wine tasting, farm exploration, and authentic Italian cooking.

Santa Benedetta, the oldest winery in Castelli Romani, was once a convent founded by Benedetta herself and later transformed into a family-owned winery. For over 300 years, winemaking techniques, traditions, and stories have been carefully preserved.

Start with a tour of the farm, where you'll sample exquisite wines crafted over the centuries and hear stories about the family's winemaking legacy and style. Then, tie on an apron for a hands-on pasta-making class! Guided by a chef and her team, you'll learn to prepare a traditional dish, which you'll later enjoy in a family-style meal with your fellow travelers.

After an unforgettable afternoon of cooking, wine, and laughter, you'll relax on the coach ride back to Rome, savoring memories of a truly Italian experience.
